Johnny,

I can't wish you any more luck than you already have because with that personality of yours you are sure to go places - never change that - It's been nice knowing you this year and I'll never forget you (some of the times especially and I'd best not write)! But good luck always and keep up your good ambition and
 I'm sure you'll be all right.
 Best wishes always!!

Love Ya!

SENIOR CLASS

FOREWORD

During the past three years, we have successfully crossed the three bridges of Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years. Now we are preparing to cross the last and most important, that of our Senior Year. Soon we will leave our friends here, and perhaps forget some of the events of this wonderful year.

With this in mind, we have published our 1957 "MOHI." Its aim is to keep always in our hearts the happy years we spent together.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1957, proudly dedicate our annual, The Mohi, to a member of our faculty who has come to be admired by students and faculty alike.

We are proud of our athletic program, and the part he has played in making it a good one. Sports are not effective or worthwhile without a coach who has the respect of the students and the goodwill of the students.

With this in mind, we are happy to dedicate our 1957 Mohi to Coach, Mr. Dave McClenny.

IN APPRECIATION

Dear Mrs. Cox:

We love you because you are what you are; consequently, we are what we are, because of master teachers like you. For your love and understanding of high school students, your fundamental and contemporary knowledge of books, and your burning desire to guide and inspire, we respectfully dedicate this page to you, one of our master teachers.

In this tribute we are fully cognizant of the priceless contributions you and the teachers have rendered in our current American heritage, and joyfully and gratefully commit ourselves in these words of praise for your composite of excellence reflected in love, knowledge, vision, and inspiration.

And in conclusion we want you to share with us the beautiful thought in the words of Guiterman:

NO PRINTED PAGE NOR SPOKEN PLEA
MAY TEACH YOUNG HEARTS WHAT MEN SHOULD BE
NOT ALL THE BOOKS ON ALL THE SHELVES
BUT WHAT THE TEACHERS ARE THEMSELVES.

With love,
The Student Body of Mount Olive High School

Senior Class of 1957

Mount Olive, North Carolina

Seniors--on May 27, 1957, you will reach a very significant point on your earthly pilgrimage of life, which began with the dawn of early childhood and will terminate with the darkening shadows of the inevitable night. The first part of this journey has been replete with many days of happiness, study, and general preparation for the days of the unpredictable future. And, in these years, your mothers, dads, and teachers have patiently and prayerfully striven to help you mold a blueprint of action and philosophy of life with the primary view that you will be conditioned and qualified for the multitude of complex and puzzling problems ahead.

In the inevitable evolution of problematic events I urge you not to deviate or detour from this noble heritage, but to strive diligently and endlessly to perpetuate this inherited trust of a marvelous beginning by (1) Seeking to serve rather than be served; by (2) Striving to give rather than to get; and, by (3) Subscribing to the eternal verity of a happy and successful life - that you make a living by what you get - but that you make a life by what you give.

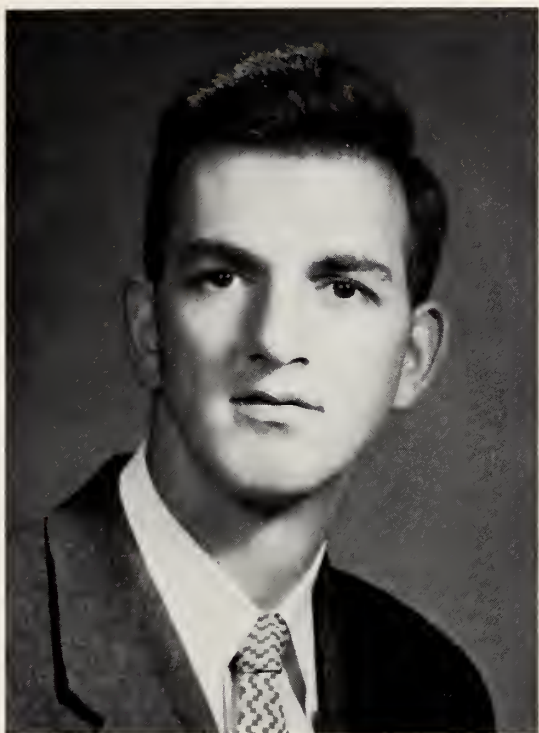

My association with each of you, Seniors, has been a happy one; and, in my fondest dreams and prayers, I shall hope that these schoolday associations of the past will flower beautifully and will grow abundantly into an adulthood where you will be outstandingly successful in your chosen profession and dearly loved and respected in the community in which you make your life.

God Bless You and Good Luck to you, Seniors, for you will always be our boys and girls.

Sincerely yours,

J. A. Batson, Principal

ONWARD MOUNT OLIVE HIGH SCHOOL

Onward, Mount Olive High School!
Here we spend our happy days!
Onward, Mount Olive High School!
You give us courage on our ways.
Schoolmates--in work and pleasure -
May we ever helpful be,
Each with his own work to do,
While striving for A's and B's.

Rah! Rah! Rah! for dear Mount Olive
High! True and bold!
Rah! Rah! Rah! just see her colors fly!
Blue and Gold!
Rah! Rah! Rah! let our echo ring---
Mount Olive
In all kinds of studies,
In all kinds of sports,
Leaders we shall ever be!

Forward, we go together,
True and loyal we shall be;
Today and in the future,
Hearts and minds in ecstasy;
Firmly we'll follow God's light,
Happily we'll meet success,
For--by love--not force of might
Are honor and happiness.

THE MOHI STAFF AT WORK

While Virginia, Susan, and Joyce planned layouts, Anne was selling ads with the help of other members of the staff. Sue was busy making picture schedules and working with the photographer. The typists, too, were busy, Marlene, Avice, Evelyn, and Eleanor were constantly at work during school and in the afternoon.

Meanwhile, our sports editor and our club editor, Dave and Bobby, were industriously seeking information for their respective jobs. Perhaps, the most tedious job of all was that of our proofreaders, Iris and Ronald. Marlene did a marvelous job of selling annuals and increased our circulation a great deal over last year's. Betty Lou had a grand time taking snapshots, but then she didn't enjoy her job a bit more than we did.

The MOHI has represented a great deal of work to each of us, but in our hearts are memories of happy times spent working together.

TOMORROW

The days too soon will disappear,
And we'll no longer see
The smiling faces in the hall
That always used to be.

No more to hear the crowds go wild
When our team leads the game,
But ne'er the less we'll surely find
Their memories still remain.

Each one will go his separate way
Into the great unknown,
But with each new and passing day
We'll know we're not alone.

No matter where we chance to go
Or what we choose to do,
We know the Lord will guide our way
If we just ask Him to.

So when we venture on our own
To seek our pot of gold,
Let us remember God above,
And never walk alone.

Anne Ricks

CLASS HISTORY

In September 1953 eighty-nine confused freshmen entered the doors of Mount Olive High School to begin their high school careers. This step meant more than just another grade in school for us. It meant changing classes, working out schedules, learning to be on time, and most of all it meant that we were now full fledged members of the Mount Olive High School Student Body. Our slate of officers for that year were Tommy Clifton, President; Charles Bell, Vice President; and Jackie Coker, secretary and treasurer.

We entered our second year a little better acquainted with the rules of high school and what was expected of us. Our class had decreased to sixty-one by this time. This year we had our first money-making project. The receipts from our Christmas Dance made us feel rich and proud of ourselves. Our officers for that year were president, Charles Bell; vice president, Tommy Clifton; secretary, Virginia Martin; treasurer, Rex Whitfield.

As our third year began, it brought much work as well as fun. That year we had a job to do; we had to give a Junior-Senior Prom. Making money was our main interest, so we had a Barbecue Supper, a Christmas Dance, and gave our annual Junior Play. All these things proved very successful as well as a lot of fun, for everyone had a good time and worked hard at the same time. How proud we were on April 29 when we gave our Junior-Senior! Its theme was "Hitch your Wagon to a Star," and it was carried out beautifully. Our leaders that year were Virginia Martin, president; Dave Wilson, vice president; Stuart Patten, secretary, and Anne Ricks, treasurer.

Now we had reached our last year. With forty-nine members in the class we began our Senior year. Dave Wilson was chosen President; Donald Lindsay, vice president; Betty Lou Kennedy, secretary; and Minnie Mae Britt, treasurer. This was a busy year. It included the publication of our annual, our class rings, the Senior Play, the Junior-Senior, and finally our caps and gowns. This year we were the ones going to Washington instead of watching the bus leave. We published the VI volume of the "MOHI." We held the places of honor all over school, for we were Seniors. We gave a most successful Senior Play, "The Hoodoo." This year Pat Johnson represented Mount Olive High School in the Miss American Legion contest in Warsaw. At the Junior-Senior we were the guests and held the places of honor. Now on May 26 as we stand in our caps and gowns, ready to receive our diplomas we take with us memories that we shall cherish forever and leave behind the happiest and the best years of our lives.

PROPHECY

It has been ten years now, and while preparing for my summer vacation, I decided to return to Mount Olive in hopes of seeing many of my fellow graduates of 1957.

Incidentally, I am BETTY LOU JACKSON, now teaching commercial courses in a Miami High School.

My first stop was by Albert's Soda Grill, and there I found CLARK COUNCILL, owner and operator. He was still serving those good hot dogs and milk shakes. JIMMY NORRIS is the proprietor of a cafe where he sells anything from hair-pins to bar-b-cued rabbits. For a few minutes I visited Mount Olive High School and there I was amazed to find, ORMOND WHITTED, who disliked school so much, the principal. I also saw DAVE WILSON, coach of M.O.H.S., who commented on "all wins and no losses." I was told that BETTY LOU KENNEDY, is a teacher in the elementary school and still no larger than her students. MARLENE OVERMAN was also a teacher but she is now living in Dudley teaching her own little two. MINNIE MAE BRITT is an English teacher and almost as good as Miss Dail. I learned that JOYCE HATCH became a laboratory technician and is now working in Winston-Salem. NANCY WILSON, a surgical nurse, is a member of the Bowman-Gray Hospital nursing staff. She assists DR. VIRGINIA MARTIN, the famous brain surgeon.

After visiting the high school, I dropped by the Clinic Drug Store where I found two old classmates, RONALD LINDSAY, Justice of the Peace, and JOHNNY THIGPEN, president of the Ford Motor Company. Johnny was trying to sell Ronald a Thunderbird.

I soon heard that BOBBY SWINSON, managing editor of the Mount Olive Tribune had just hired a new society columnist, MARGARET POWELL. SUE WILLIAMS, business editor of the paper is in demand as a speaker for women's clubs all over the state.

I then drove out to Grantham to see JOYCE JACKSON who is happily married and employed in her husband's business, "Joyner's Garage." Two famous hot-rod drivers, JIMMY JERNIGAN and TOMMY ODOM, were waiting to have their cars fixed. Standing near-by were several farmers HUBERT THORNTON, JAMES HALL, and B. J. JENNETTE. They were engaged in a heated discussion about tobacco yields, with REX WHITFIELD, owner of half of the farms in the Rones Chapel section. They were upset because E. H. SUTTON had made a mistake in surveying their land.

I dropped in at LOREE LANE'S home for a short visit and met her family. While there we tuned in on Channel 11 and saw CHARLES "TINKER" BELL on his TV Panel, "What Makes The World Go Round." While talking to Loree, I found out that several of my old friends had become executive secretaries. These include MARY ANN BARWICK, of the Wester-Lloyd Firm in Raleigh, NELL HOLLOWELL of the F.B.I in Washington, EVELYN SUTTON of the Long and Long Insurance in Chicago, CAROLYN SOUTHERLAND of Ballentine Dairy near Needmore, ELEANOR McCULLEN at Dupont in Kinston and CHARLOTTE HODGES of State Prison (who is none other than the Warden's wife). I also found out MARGARET JERNIGAN now sells Tussy Products when not looking after her husband and family.

Several of our classmates have gone into show business. When I visited WGBR, I was just in time to see the "Be-Bopers." The members of this band, DONALD LINDSAY, STUART PATTEN, LAWRENCE HASSELL, MILTON GILLIS, and TOMMY CLIFTON were picking off "All Around the World." SUSAN ABBOTT, who gave up her art career and now is a popular Hollywood vocalist was their guest star. PATRICIA JOHNSON, Broadway's latest star was discovered because of her new hair style which was originated by the world famous hair stylist, IRIS BEST. CLETUS SWINSON, another Liberace, is co-starring with her in the Broadway production "What Comes Next." EMMA KAY HINES is choreographer for this spectacular new musical. ANNE RICKS has entered another field of show business. She is now the leading soprano in the Metropolitan Opera.

JANET COMNICK is still following her air-force husband in his military travels. AVICE HOLLOMAN is living in Mount Olive with her husband and family.

It is too bad that Uncle Sam summoned JAMES COMBS and RODNEY LEE before they could begin their careers.

Now that my vacation has ended and I have seen all my fellow graduates, I am proud to know what successful and happy people the seniors of 1957 have proved to be.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the 1957 Senior Class of Mount Olive High School, being of sound mind and realizing that our departure from this school is near at hand, do hereby declare and make this our last will and testament, on this, the fifteenth day of December.

Article I

To our school we leave our love and gratitude forever.

Article II

To our faculty we leave our deep, sincere appreciation for the many things that you have done for us and for your guidance during the past four years.

Article III

To our underclassmen we leave these talents and properties:

SUSAN ABBOTT leaves her way with Goldsboro boys to the Junior Girls for their joys.

MARY ANN BARWICK leaves her quiet ways to Linda Skipper for her noisy days.

"TINKER" BELL leaves his studious ways to Joyce Garner to get her A's.

MINNIE MAE BRITT leaves her well-worn books for the procrastinating Junior's looks.

STARKEY CHERRY leaves her winning smile to The Junior Girls to keep awhile.

TOMMY CLIFTON who really rides far leaves Bill Tillman his "cute little car."

JAMES COMBS leaves his quiet ways to his sister, Elizabeth, for all her days.

JANET COMNICK who went to the altar, leaves her luck to Hilda Smith in hopes she won't falter.

MARLENE OVERMAN who's so pretty and neat leaves this to anyone who can accomplish this feat.

CLARK COUNCILL leaves his great height to Jimmy Batson to add to his might.

MILTON GILLIS leaves his English study hall to help some Junior get on the ball.

JAMES HALL leaves his glasses to Sebron Sasser so he can make passes.

LAWRENCE HASSELL leaves his lost weight to "Muscles" Rackley to make him great.

JOYCE HATCH leaves her winning ways to help Pinky Loftin in her Senior days.

EMMA KAY HINES leaves her dancing ability to Diana Porter for her agility.

If you ask CHARLOTTE HODGES she'll probably say she's leaving, she hopes, graduation day.

AVICE HOLLOMAN leaves her nice ways to Joan Shaw for her future days.

NELL HOLLOWELL leaves her chatter to Barbara Raynor to whom it doesn't matter.

BETTY LOU JACKSON leaves her spirits gay to Delores Butler for a stormy day.

REX WHITFIELD leaves his F.F.A. to Billy Daughtry to work some day.

MARGARET POWELL leaves her long blonde hair to help Anne Bracey's locks so fair.

TOMMY ODOM leaves his clothes so neat to "Junky" Loftin who can't be beat.

HUBERT THORNTON leaves his smile to Billy Bracey to use for a while.

CAROLYN SOUTHERLAND leaves swimming fun to some underclassman a lucky one.

PATRICIA JOHNSON leaves her looks to Betty Lou Cooke to go along with her books.

JIMMY JERNIGAN leaves his might to Billy Patterson to help him fight.

B. J. JENNETTE leaves his wit to Kermit Goodson, whom it seems to fit.

LOREE LANE wouldn't give away "Dump," but the Junior Girls can get over this hump.

ORMOND WHITTED leaves his bus because the dog-gone thing makes too much fuss.

CLETUS SWINSON, the chemistry whiz leaves his art to Rudy Oates, a "real giz."

E. H. SUTTON leaves his ability to talk, to Harold Cooke so he won't balk.

RODNEY LEE leaves his height for Jackie Faucette to see the light.

JIMMY NORRIS leaves his football to the '57 Panthers, one and all.

ELEANOR McCULLEN leaves her typing speed to Miss Olive, who is much in need.

ANN RICKS leaves her golden voice to Anne Wilson, her choice.

BETTY LOU KENNEDY who's so cute and small leaves this to Hattie Sutton so she'll have it all.

NANCY WILSON leaves her glasses to Karen Sue Best so she can make passes.

VIRGINIA MARTIN leaves her brains to help Bert May who needs some gains.

JOYCE HATCH leaves her love for basketball to the girls' team, one and all.

SUE WILLIAMS leaves her love for boys to Snow Miller for her future joys.

BOBBY SWINSON leaves his big mouth to Dick Lewis who's running it South.

DAVE WILSON, our football star, leaves this to Jimmy Reaves so he can go far.

RONALD LINDSAY leaves his red hair to "T" Cherry so he'll have some to spare.

STUART PATTEN leaves his glasses so P. K. Sutton can see the lasses.

DONALD LINDSAY leaves his Faison girl to Bill Burnette to give a whirl.

JOHNNY THIGPEN, who does French so well leaves this ability to Miss Dail.

IRIS BEST leaves her big brown eyes to help Betty Lee Jackson catch those guys.

JOYCE JACKSON leaves her winning smile to Jeanette Summerlin to wear awhile.

MARGARET JERNIGAN leaves her ways so cute so Sue Lowe can all the boys suit.

The Senior Class expresses its appreciation to all who have helped in the publication of this edition of the MOHI.

Especially do we wish to thank the faculty and Charles Kraft for their patience and understanding when difficulties arose, and we needed help.

We also wish to thank the merchants for the support they gave us through advertisements and donations, and last, but not least, we thank the students who gave us the material for this yearbook as they lived here at school.

We have crossed the last bridge of our high school life, and now we stand on a hill gazing at the future. But the future is misty, and only time will reveal to us our destinies. As we say goodbye to each other, let us pray that God will guide each of our lives in his love and mercy.

Here the staff of the 1957 "MOHI" would like to say a sincere "Thank You" to everyone who has helped in the publication of this annual.

Here's hoping the best to a very wonderful person. You have a very nice personality and are very cute & sweet. Hope we're always friends.

Love,
Lita

Johnny, I hope enjoyed being in school with you. May your future be filled with bright stars.
Love ya!
Came Ricks

Johnny, you are a real cute fellow. I am going to miss your smiling face next year.

Johnny, I love you! Figuratively speaking, of course. Honestly you are the cutest and sweetest boy I know. I don't see how I'll ever survive in this world without you. "I mean it." Seriously. I think you're grand, of course. I may be wrong.

Loree Lane

Lots of luck to a real nice boy.
Jimmy Harris

Best wishes! I have really enjoyed knowing you during high school. you have a lot of happiness.

John, I remember the day of our first kiss. I won't say when but wasn't it full of emotion. I thank you and I'll remember you as one of the heart of all humans. God be with you - Love Susan H.

John —
It's been a helluva time for the past few years. But the fun's just beginning. I'll bet I raise more hell than you do next year. A bet?
Okay — Let's let the good times
roll — Good luck —
Johnny

John,
It's been a hell
of a good time these last years, but now
really let the good times roll. The best of luck in
